You can change your skin's destiny?

“If you were born you're dying”...

We have all heard the quote in skin care classes. As we age skin cells are born and skin cells die. The largest organ on your body, your skin is constantly shedding and reproducing 24/7.

Yet our efforts to prevent aging and repair skin damage are after the fact. The future is about aiming your efforts where skin is produced and aging starts rather than focusing on micro peeling the epidermis to remove what nature and lifestyle has already ruined.

Our clients come to us with the damage and we continue to cycle through by taking away the damaged layers only for them to return again and again with the same things; wrinkles, sun damage, ingrown hairs, stretch marks. We offer up our potions and take out our wands to take down the epidermis and never stop to change the cycle.

Let's look at a few ingredients that get down and change the condition of the skin in the early stages of skin cell life.

Simmondsia Chinensis (jojoba) Seed Oil: Works to balance oil production in the skin and provides moisture that is missing.

Sesamum Indicum (sesame) Seed Oil: Very high in the anti-oxidant vitamin E that works to hydrate skin.

Vitis Vinifera (grape) Seed Oil: Rich in fatty acid linoleic acid that is vital to the health of skin cells and aides in skin regeneration.

Aqua Water: A catalyst to carry water deeper into the skin.

Calendula Officinalis Flower Extract Essential oil: Works to reduce inflammation and itchy skin from over production of histamines.

Salvia Sclarea (clary) Oil Essential oil: Anti-bacterial and astringent and works to clear clogged skin and ulcers on the skin.

Aniba Rosaeodora (rosewood) Wood Oil Essential oil: Rejuvenates and works for the immune system to protect the skin.

Cananga Odorata Flower Oil Ylang Ylang Essential Oil: Stabilizes oil product to balance the skin.

The combination of these ingredients my friends is what creates our Phenomen-all™ for skin repair. Used morning and night to replenish moisture, calm irritation caused by inflamed acne, ingrown hairs or sun damage. Give your clients the gift of life, the life of their skin cells back and prevent aging and repairs.

Mother's day is next week, give the gift of life and make mom look and feel young
